Your Guide to Choosing the Right Facility

When Choosing Care, Quality Matters

Choosing the right skilled nursing facility (SNF) for yourself or a loved one, or recommending one for one of your patients, can be a challenging, potentially emotional task.

There are many aspects of SNF care that individuals and families should consider when deciding on a facility. The list includes location and size, services offered, staffing, level of independence, and if the facility has any outstanding complaints or grievances against it. Very often an individual or family/member will consult with a social worker or trusted physician for their medical opinion, as it is important to go beyond word-of-mouth recommendations. The need for care is as unique as the person receiving it.

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) created a Five-Star Quality Rating System to help consumers, their families, caregivers, and providers easily compare nursing homes. The CMS rating is one of the best indicators of quality care. This system can highlight areas to ask questions about before they/their loved-one/their patient is admitted.

Each SNF is given one overall star rating and a separate rating for each of the following three categories: health inspections, staffing, and quality measures.<sup>1</sup> For more information about CMS's five-star quality rating system, please visit: www.cms.gov/Medicare/Provider-Enrollment-and-Certification/CertificationandCompliance/FSQRS

| Star Rating | What It Means |
|-------------|---------------|
| ★★★★★       | Excellent     |
| ★★★★        | Above Average |
| ★★★         | Average       |
| ★           | Poor          |

To qualify for SNF extended care services coverage, traditional Medicare requires patients to meet the 3-day rule: The patient must have a medically necessary, consecutive 3-day inpatient hospital stay before SNF admission. Private insurance companies, such as EmblemHealth, typically do NOT have the same requirement for SNF admissions. Therefore, our members (Commercial, Medicare Advantage and Medicaid) may be admitted to SNFs directly from home, an emergency room or following an observation stay in the hospital when medically appropriate.*

EmblemHealth’s primary concern is the quality of care our members receive in every setting, including skilled nursing facilities. To aid members, families, and providers in the decision of choosing a SNF to meet their/their patient’s needs, EmblemHealth has compiled a list of our contracted SNFs with a Star Quality Rating of 3 and above.
